ANGELA LYNN MARTIN

TRANSFORMATIONAL SPEAKER | RECOVERY ADVOCATE | AUTHOR OF UNMASKED

Mask off. Crown on.

ABOUT ANGELA

Angela Lynn Martin helps women trade the mask for a crown — moving from hidden survival to honest, whole, purposeful living. She speaks on identity, recovery, and authentic leadership — from a life that has walked every word.

She is the author of Unmasked: A Memoir of Hope Beyond Abuse, Addiction and Depression, her story of identity recovery and what it takes to rebuild from the inside out. That journey is the foundation of everything she builds today.

SIGNATURE KEYNOTE • 45–60 MINUTES

Recover the Woman, Reclaim the Crown

Unmasking isn't becoming someone new. It's recovering who you were before you learned to hide — and learning to wear the crown with authority.

The Mask — the life that looked like it worked: performance, perfection, "I'm fine."

The Turning — the moment of honesty. Recovery isn't going back; it's coming home to yourself.

The Crown — identity rebuilt into authority: boundaries, decisions, voice.
